

Information for the Voter Authority Certificate form

From 4 May 2023, you must take photo ID with you when you vote at a polling station.

You can find out which elections you need to have photo ID for at electoralcommission.org.uk/voterID

You can find out what is ok to use as photo ID at electoralcommission.org.uk/voterID

If you do not have anything that is ok to use as photo ID and you want to vote in an election where you need photo ID

you can apply for a Voter Authority Certificate.

A Voter Authority Certificate is free.

You will be able to use your Voter Authority Certificate as photo ID when you vote at a polling station.

You can use the form with this information sheet to apply for a Voter Authority Certificate.

Or you can apply online at voter-authority-certificate.service.gov.uk

If you have any questions about the form, please contact your Electoral Registration Office.

You can find the details of your Electoral Registration Office at electoralcommission.org.uk/voter

You can only apply for a Voter Authority Certificate if you have registered to vote.

You can register to vote at gov.uk/register-to-vote or contact your Electoral Registration Office for a paper form.

You can also contact your Electoral Registration Office if you are not sure if you are registered to vote.

When you fill in the Voter Authority Certificate form with this information sheet, it will help if you:

- have a photo you can send with the form
- know your National Insurance number
- know your date of birth

If you do not know this information, you might have to wait longer before your Electoral Registration Office can send you a Voter Authority Certificate.

When you have filled in the form, please send it to your Electoral Registration Office.

Your Electoral Registration Office will check your form.

You can find the details of your Electoral Registration Office at electoralcommission.org.uk/voter

Your Electoral Registration Office must have your form by 5pm, 6 working days before the election you want to vote in.

Working days are usually Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Do not count a day as a working day if it is a public holiday. For example, Good Friday is a public holiday.

Voter Authority Certificate form

When you fill in this form, you must:

- write in black ink
- write in CAPITAL LETTERS

Section1: Your name and address

Your first names

Your surname

The address where you have registered to vote

The postcode where you have registered to vote

Section 2: Your date of birth

When is your birthday?

Month

Which day in the month?

What year were you born?

If you do not know your date of birth, please tell us why you do not know it.

If you do not know your date of birth, please tick if you are:

Under 16 years old

16 or 17 years old

18 years old or over

Section 3: Your National Insurance number

What is your National Insurance number?

You might find your National Insurance number on your payslip, or on a letter about tax, pensions or benefits.

If you can not tell us your National Insurance number, please tell us why.

If you have told us your date of birth and your National Insurance number, please go to Section 5.

If you have not told us your date of birth and your National Insurance number, please go to Section 4.

Section 4: Documents

You only need to fill in this section if you have not told us your date of birth and your National Insurance number.

You will need to send copies of some documents with this application form.

Do not send the original documents. For example do not send your original birth certificate.

You need to send a photocopy of it.

You will need to send copies of:

- 1 document from list A and 2 other documents from list A or B or

- 4 documents from list B

List A documents

These documents must be from the UK, Channel Islands or Isle of Man.

- Birth certificate
- Marriage or civil partnership certificate
- Adoption certificate
- Firearms certificate (granted under the Firearms Act 1968)
- Paper driving licence (not photocard)
- Record of a bail decision (issued in England or Wales)

This document must not be from the UK, Channel Islands or Isle of Man.

- Driving licence with photo (The driving licence must be valid for at least 12 months from when you came into the UK)

List B documents

- Bank or building society statement, or a letter from your bank or building society showing that you have an account with them
- Utility bill (for example gas, electricity or water bill)
- Credit card statement
- Benefits (or benefits entitlement) statement
- Mortgage statement
- P45 or P60 form
- Pension statement
- Council tax statement, or Council Tax demand letter

The documents in list B can be the same type of document.

For example, you can send 4 bank statements from different months.

If you can not send copies of the documents we need from lists A and B, please tick this box.

If you can not send copies of the documents, you should still fill in this form and send it to your Electoral Registration Office.

When your Electoral Registration Office get your form, they will contact you. They might ask you for some other information.

If you can not send copies of the documents, you might have to wait longer before your Electoral Registration Office can send you a Voter Authority Certificate.

Section 5: Photo

Please send a recent photo of you with this form.

A copy of the photo will be printed on your Voter Authority Certificate.

It is a good idea to write your name, house number and postcode on the back of the photo.

There are a lot of rules about the photo.

The photo must be:

- of your head and shoulders
- clear and in focus
- in colour
- with a plain, light-coloured background
- an un-edited photo of you (You can not send a photo where how you look has been changed by photoshop or filters)
- at least 45mm high x 35mm wide (the size of the box below), and

- no bigger than 297mm high x 210mm wide

The photo must not be torn, creased, or marked.

In the photo you must:

- look straight ahead at the camera
- be alone, with no other objects or people
- not smile or frown
- have your eyes open and not covered by your hair. The person looking at the photo must be able to see your eyes

In the photo, you must not:

- wear sunglasses (normal glasses are ok if you usually wear glasses)
- have a head covering (except for religious or medical reasons)
- have 'red-eye', glare or shadows over your face

If you have a disability which means you can not send a photo which keeps to all of the rules, please tick this box.

If you have a disability and have ticked the box above, you can send a photo where:

- you are smiling, frowning or showing emotion on your face
- your eyes are not open
- the person looking at the photo can not see your eyes

If you can not send a photo, please tick this box.

If you can not send a photo, you should still fill in this form and send it to your Electoral Registration Office.

When your Electoral Registration Office gets your form, they will contact you. They might ask you to come to their offices to have your photo taken.

If you can not send a photo, you might have to wait longer before your Electoral Registration Office can send you a Voter Authority Certificate.

Section 6: Getting your Voter Authority Certificate

Your Voter Authority Certificate will be posted to the address where you have registered to vote.

If you need to pick up your Voter Authority Certificate from your Electoral Registration Office, please tell us why.

Section 7: Accessible formats

We will send you some information with your Voter Authority Certificate.

Please let us know if you would like the information in:

- easy read (pictures with easy words)
- large print
- braille

Section 8: Contacting you about this form

If we need to contact you about this form, it is quicker if we can phone or email you.

If you are happy to let us know your phone number and email address, please write them in the boxes below.

Phone number

Email address

If your Electoral Registration Office does not have your phone number or email address, they will write to you at your registered address.

If your Electoral Registration Office can not contact you easily, you might have to wait longer before they can send you a Voter Authority Certificate.

Section 9: Your signature

Please sign in the box below to say that:

- you think all of the information on this form is true

- you know that a Voter Authority Certificate can only be used as ID for voting at a polling station. It is not meant to be used as ID in other places.

- your local Electoral Registration Office can contact you if they have any questions about this form

- your local Electoral Registration Office can check the information they already have about you or check other information they can look at.

If you know that any of the information on this form is not true, you might have to pay a fine and/or go to prison.

Your signature

Today's date

Privacy statement

This section explains what we do with the information you give us on this form.

Your local Electoral Registration Officer decides what information to ask people for and what they are going to do with the information.

The law says that the Electoral Registration Officer has to look after your information and keep it safe.

The Electoral Registration Officer has a document about what they will do with your information. The document is called a privacy notice.

You can contact your Electoral Registration Office and ask them to send you a copy of their privacy notice.

You can find the details of your Electoral Registration Office at electoralcommission.org.uk/voter