ISSUE 6: Qs. 6.1, 6.2 and 6.6 – Approach to development in the Countryside

The basis of objection to these policies and in particular Policy 20 and consequently Policy 31 stems from the in principle objection to the removal of all settlement boundaries to settlements other than the four main towns and then seeking to apply a very restrictive policy of constraint as set out under Policy 20. The objections to this approach have been set out in detail under the responses to the Inspector's questions 1.7 to 1.11 inclusive.

This response to these earlier questions together with the reps already submitted at the Pre-Submission stage explain the concerns expressed by Hall & Woodhouse Ltd to these policies.
