Perfect for rest and relaxation

"Some Friends Recommended we stay here some time ago (too long). We finally took the plunge last September for a short break and wished we had not waited so long. We went back again this week for a short break and left having booked a long break next year. Everyone is so friendly and we feel at home the moment we walk in. The rooms are great, with King size beds and on suite toilet and shower. The pool is Great, being a non swimmer I can be in any part as it is only 1.2 Metres deep. We love the huge Jacuzzi spa. The catering is absolutely fabulous, and we always enjoy the choices we are given. An Absolutely First class stay for Naturists in a lovely area."

Short but so very sweet

"Just a couple of days with friends celebrating her birthday. Catered for every thing you could think of, proper big towels...none of those that should not be away from their mother type! Extra pillows for the sun loungers. Plenty of fridge space for those beers or bottles of wine. Loads of different areas to sit, well thought out sun traps. Kitchen area with tea and coffee, biscuits, cakes, soft drinks, ice creams with honesty box to help yourself near the pool area, plastic glasses supplied. Everyone we spoke to had been before. Once you find this place you will come back. Had BBO one night, great steaks! Then due to popular request we had the steak pie...well I had seconds. Chicken dishes, salmon, salads were also available. Food is served buffet style so help yourself...."

Perfect place to relax

"A family run b&b set in a beautiful location. We received a warm welcome and shown around. The facilities are lovely with heated pool, jacuzzi and large hot tub. There is also a pool table, dart board and boules court. Also plenty of sun loungers to work on that all over tan. Our room was small but very comfortable with an ensuite shower & loo. Dinner bed and breakfast and wow the food that Chris churns out is amazing. We ate like kings! I would definitely recommend this place for a completely relaxing time and a chance to meet some lovely like minded people."
