I cannot see any specific reference to GREENHILL GARDENS in each of these sections or showing its existence on any of the plans.

Mention is made in 8.7 that Weymouth Council maintains certain similar parks and areas, but none are mentioned specifically.

These Gardens need statutory protection within this plan as a green space – they are vital to the ambiance of the coastal promenade, providing residents and tourists with a calm and enjoyable place to sit and relax and especially taking in the vista of the Bay, as they have done for many generations.

The involvement of the Gardens Friends group is to be applauded and recognised as bringing substantial benefits. With the golf and tennis courts adjacent, this area is a hugely important and essential facility for the Town – which this plan must recognise specifically.
