Proposed Crossing – St Marys Road, Ferndown

The existing signal controller and equipment is reaching the end of its maintainable life, which will increase maintenance costs and reduce reliability.

This location has been identified as suitable for a zebra crossing, based on the recorded vehicle speeds, traffic volumes and a low to moderate pedestrian demand. Replacing the existing pelican crossing with a zebra crossing will reduce both the initial capital cost and ongoing maintenance costs, whilst still providing a safe crossing facility for pedestrians.