WHO S WHO AT ST MICHAEL'S

Variety is the spice of life at St Michael's which is now in its 48th year of operation. Over the years the estate has attracted a diverse and eclectic mix of traders and many of these are listed below.

The number against each trader cross refers to the map to help locate each of the premises and if you double click on the name it should take you through automatically to each trader's website.

Not all our traders feel the need for a web site but in each case you will find a brief description of the individual business:
