

Elephanta

The Cave Temple at Elephanta. Captain Oakley also visited these caves and compared them to the ones at Karlee.

They evidently belong to different sects, perhaps to different ages - The Karlee temple is Buddhist that of Elephanta Brahminical: they have long Captain Oakley thought the Cave Temples at Karlee and Elephanta belonged to different religions.

The Karlee Temple was where Buddhists worshipped and The Elephanta Temple was where Brahminical or Hindu people worshipped.

been disused as places of worship and the natives can give more but childish accounts of them. — Whilst I was sketching

The Temples were no longer used for worship and Captain Oakley was unable to get any information from local people about their past.

of them. — Whilst I was sketching the frontispiece a troop of huge monkeys of a brownish yellow colour passed over the front of the temple.

Whilst he was making his sketches of the Cave Temple, a troop of huge Monkeys with brownish yellow fur climbed over the front of the Temple.