Dear Ms. Sparks, We have only recently received details of the above. I have spoken to Ms. McKay of Dorset County Council regarding this and as tenants of the land involved we totally support the closure of the existing footpath. It has rarely been used since the provision of the new permissive footpath, which has proved extremely popular, safer and used constantly. The permissive footpath was made available by us in conjunction with the Duchy of Cornwall. All expenses involved in its construction were funded at no expense to the public.

Yours sincerely, John Hoskin. John Hoskin & Sons
